“ My heart is broken that my Uncle Sammy is gone, so quickly and so tragically. As a child we would go to my grandparents house where the rest of the family would gather in. We would make ice cream in the old crank case ice cream maker. I and my other cousins would take turns sitting on the machine while Uncle Sammy turned the crank.

As we grew to be adults he and Marsha would cook breakfast on Christmas morning for all the family. What I remember most about him is he loved his family and always had a smile or a laugh. I miss you.
