

Sandra Beeler Clark

July 31, 1949 - January 23, 2026

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 A.M, on Wednesday, January 28, 2026, at Ebenezer Cemetery. Friends and family are welcome to attend.

Sandra Beeler Clark was born, July 31, 1949 and passed away, Friday January 23, 2026 at Cullman Regional Medical Center.

Sandra was a homemaker for most of her life and took great pride in taking care of her family. She was a hard worker who ensured meals were always prepared and her home was kept clean and welcoming. Above all, Sandra loved her kids deeply. She faithfully supported them in their school activities and opened her home to their friends, creating a place filled with warmth, laughter, and love.

Sandra was an avid Auburn Tigers fan and attended many of their games, cheering them on with great enthusiasm.

She was preceded in death by her first love, Larry Clark; her children, Genia Clark Bowden and Jeffery Clark; her parents, Clyde Beeler and Bernice Umphrey Beeler; brother, JD Beeler; sisters, Bonnie Hill and Carol Ashley; and nephew, Benji Hill.

She is survived by her son Joey Clark and his wife Tonya; her grandchildren, Kristian Clark Long (Nick), Kaitlyn Clark, Kinsley Clark and Michael Bowden; great grandson, Naylor Long; her special friend who was like a daughter, Melony Drake Griggs; nieces, Michelle Baler, Sherry Rainwater (Jeff) and Suzanne House (Darin); nephews, Mark Hill, Nicholas Hill, and Robert Ashley (Misty); and her special friend, Nathan Aaron.

“ I am at loss for words. She was my neighbor growing up. The bridge between my mom and myself. She taught me so much and always had my back. Saved my life hide a time or two. I babysat Genia and Joey all their growing up years. So many fun times of my youth included these people. This family was my family and I have grieved them all. Prayers Joey and Godspeed to Sandra. ❤️❤️❤️
