“ With deep regret, I read in the Decatur paper of our loss of Sandi. Sandi and I grew up together, lived near each other and road the school bus for many years, often sitting together. I had not seen her for several years and regret that. I had just received a returned card as I was inviting her to our 50th class reunion from Lakeview High School I always loved her quiet demeanor and her warm smile. I am so sorry for your loss.
