“ Roger and Stan have been the best of friends for 45 years. While Roger was in the hospital at Erlanger, Stan would drive his camper to Chattanooga and stay for several days at a time. One particular night after Roger had a procedure done and we were back in ICU again, honestly thinking that Roger wouldn't make it, around 10:30 p m a nurse came into ICU and told me that a man named Stan was in the hallway insisting on coming in. I told her that he was my husbands best friend and to please let him in. She did. Stan had driven from Cullman to Chattanooga to see his friend for what he thought was the last time. He stayed for about an hour and he did a lot of talking and we both shed a lot of tears. Then Stan left and drove back to Cullman that same night. Stan did get to see Roger on several more occasions and he even brought Ruby to rehab a couple of times. After Roger passed away, Stan called me every few weeks just to see how my and my children and grandchildren were doing. This is rather lengthy but I just wanted everyone to know that Stan loved with his whole heart. And Roger and I loved him with all of our heart. We were so blessed to have a friend like Stan.
