“ Lots of memories of my friend. You could be down and DEWAYNE would have you laughing and back on track in no time. He would talk about his uncle moving a fish pond that he had had bought and all the problems he had moving it to his property it would crack you up. Another fond memory was when he asked JOHN CRUMP if he could ask the blessing at one of our dinners we had at Bug Tussel Steak House. So everyone got real quiet, we bowed our heads then DEWAYNE started his prayer. He said "the devil sucks amen". We all busted out laughing. He was a good man and he will be missed by family and friends I was always proud to call him my friend. See you when we all get to Heaven. YOUR FRIEND JUNIOR FRANKS
