“ *I am in total shock!
I met Wendy when I was only 11 years old. We had moved to St Agnes apartments in Baltimore, from Australia, which is where Wendy worked at the time. Starting from scratch, and in a completely new country, Wendy helped my family immensely. My mother told me to write to her on Facebook to visit them in Australia and that is why I visited her page. Only to hear the news. Absolutely devastated. I wanted to see you again, my 4 and 2 year old children also know about you. Love you Wendy. Rest in peace.*

“ Working with Wendy at RMI, I remember how cheerful Wendy was when I spoke to her on the phone. We always made time to see how each other was doing. She was a very conscientious of her job. It was always a pleasure to see her at our RMI parties. She always had such a beautiful smile. I am sure she will be missed by all who knew her. May she Rest In Peace and you hold her memory to you heart ❤️

“ Babycakes.....I don't know what to write.It's hard to see things through tears. I can only be thankful for our time together. I know that you would be overwhelmed by the outpouring of love that people have shown. I can't explain why you were taken so early and so quickly. I can look back on the incredible trips that we took and the crazy and fun things that we did. But mostly I can look out everyday at Smith Lake. The thing that brought us the most joy and comfort. Our time there will never be taken away. Your bleeding hearts bloomed today. How fitting is that? But my heart is broken. It's just hard to walk around and see the trees and flowers that you planted blooming, and you are not here to see them. This was always your favorite time of the year, and you are not here to see them You were just an incredible person who loved me through the best of times but also the worst of times. Skippy and Boh miss you greatly. I will love you forever. We would always sing this.....I never knew how true it is until now....“There never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to once you find them”.....Love Rick

“ My sister and I were very much alike and very different in many ways. I laughed with her and said I was the squirrel that forgot to gather my winter provisions and she had everything she needed and some left over for her little sister who lived for the day. She would say "laugh all you want , but look what I got"

I knew that she had my back and if I called her she would get me back on the path.

She taught me the art of being the coupon queen.....the store always owed her money back after a day of shopping.

I knew that whatever lesson she taught me, it was never meant to be judgemental, just meant to guide me from her experience.

We both shared our love for gardening and animals and she was never at a loss to tell me a fun fact about an animal or a flower.

Rick, you were a perfect partner and you both deserved more time to enjoy your perfect life.... I will never be able to thank you enough for the joy you brought to her life.

*"When I go.. don't learn to live without me
Just learn to live with my love on a different way....
And if you need to see me...
Close your eyes...
I'm there.*

“ Mrs. Wendy was my first true friend when I started at Regional Management. She was so friendly and wise. I'll never forget the day I met her at St. Agnes for training. While she was giving me the run down of how the office operates, she was putting recycled paper into the copier tray. Of course, I asked her why she was doing that. She told me that she didn't like to waste things so she always flips the paper over to use the back of it. That really speaks volumes about the kind of person she was. Very thoughtful and considerate. There I was, sitting with some woman I met a couple of hours ago, and I was just beside myself, completely taken in by her. Listening to her knowledge and her quirky jokes, her love for traveling and animals. She was one of the first people to suggest I get my real estate license. She really believed I could do it. When I needed help or advice, she was always ready with a listening ear and warm smile. Working with her was such a pleasure. I was so sad to see her leave RMI, I knew that I wouldn't get to see her much anymore. I wish I would have reached out to her more and kept in touch better. The world has lost such a beautiful, loving and fierce soul but I am so lucky to have known her. I am glad that I was able to be her friend.

“ Lifelong friends are hard to find. Having Wendy in my life since 1972 is a blessing from above. Wendy’s hard truths were full of wisdom and given out of the deep love to help in any situation. Life advice was always given when asked. She was my lifeline. We laughed and we cried. She started me with a greeting of Good Morning almost everyday. Now instead of looking in the messenger app, I will just look up.

“ Wendy was an amazing person, full of life and energy, but most of all her honesty was one of her best traits. She was a dedicated wife and mother to her family even her extended family she took care of everyone. she was a lover of animals, but most of all she treated everyone with the upmost respect. You meet people in your life that you want to be like and she was one of them. , you’ll be missed by all. God rest your soul, heaven is a wonderful place but now that Wendy’s there it’s an awesome place.

“ Dear Rick
John and I have you and all of your family in our thoughts and prayers.
You and Wendy were a great pair...you both embraced this green lawyer and educated me on the "RMI way" and I carry those lessons always. Now its my turn, so if there is anything that I can do for you and your family during this time please do not hesitate to call on me.
With warm memories and love- Kathy

“ Whenever I saw Wendy, she had a kind word to share. Whether it was a compliment, an encouraging thought, or a simple “How are you? Her words left a lasting mark. She reminded us that kindness costs nothing but enriches everything. Wendy's attention to detail always made me smile about the simplest things in life.

“ Wendy and I worked together at RMI for 30 years or more. She was the hardest working woman I knew. Always worked two jobs. We shared many a conversation at work. We supported each other with daily work issues that came up. Wendy was truthful, loyal, kind to her loved ones and amazingly frugal. I remember a story she told me about her grandmother giving her a dime and she immediately took it to the bank. She was very wise.

Most importantly Wendy found the love of her life in her husband Rick. I'm so happy she found a person she could count on and love and be loved by in her life.

My sincere condolences to Rick and the family. Wendy will be missed.

“ Wendy was a great partner to Rick. She was loving and supportive while being practical. She loved all of her family. It is a blessing that she and Rick were able to start a new life in Alabama. It is tragic that it ended far too soon. She will be missed but not forgotten.
