“ Zac I love u more than u will ever know. We planned on growing old together and seeing our kids grow up and one day even having grandkids and the good Lord called u home. We didn't even get a gray hair together. Everything happens for a reason and it don't make sense right now but I know we will be together again one day in heaven. I just want u to know I'm thankful for the time we had together and know that I showed me the true meaning of love and I loved u more than u will ever know. R.I.P

“ Zac your truly missed this has been one of the hardest weeks in my life. Everything happens for a reason and it don't make sense right now. We planned to grow old together and watch out kids grow up and even talked about one day getting to see grand kids born. We didn't even get to get a gray hair on our head together. I know your in a better place and we will see each other again but I think about u all day every day. I love u more than u will ever know
